EYLER THRIVING ON PRISON LIFE

Man Serving Life Sentence in Penitentiary Recovered from First Ill Effects and is now in Apparent Good Health.

William Eyer, serving a life sentence in the Eastern Penitentiary for the murder of Howard Miller in Gettysburg on Memorial Day 1906, is thriving on prison life and has apparently recovered from the ill effects which he suffered from his first few years' confinement.

Sheriff Thompson and his deputies returned on Wednesday evening from Philadelphia after taking three prisoners down to serve sentences imposed at Saturday's Court. The other inmates of the penitentiary who had been sent from here were visited before the local officials left the place.

Eyer, as usual, had little to say. He has gotten considerably larger since his trial and looks well. A year or more ago it was reported that Eyer, accustomed to an out-door life and mountain atmosphere, was suffering from the close confinement and that his life would likely be much shortened. He seems now to be in perfect health.

John Waddle was another of the prisoners seen. He seems to be very well and happy and quite contented with his life at institution.

Officials at the penitentiary recognized Tom White as soon as he reached the place. White completed a term there within the past two years, it is said, and is known to all those in charge at the penitentiary. He took his trip down in good humor and seemed rather to enjoy the whole proceeding.

Pittenturf was also recognized and welcomed by the officials while Brannen was the only one of the trio to be serving his first penitentiary term. Both he and Pittenturf seemed much cast down over their plight. Pittenturf had refused to eat breakfast the morning they left Gettysburg but White not only ate his own but also disposed of that which Pittenturf refused.

FOR G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

At a meeting of Post 9, G. A. R., of this place, the following comrades were appointed to look after the entertainment of the Department of Pennsylvania during the encampment at Gettysburg next June, viz., W. T. Ziegler, T. C. Billheimer and J. A. Clutz. This committee desires the merchants of town to appoint a like number of citizens to assist them in making this the most successful and pleasant encampment the old soldiers have ever enjoyed. The committee will receive contributions and pay all expenses connected with the encampment. We still need $200 to meet the necessary expenses and it is hoped the people of the town will come forward promptly with the required amount. Mr. Eberhart of the Eagle Hotel and Mr. Ring of the Hotel Gettysburg have most generously agreed to give us $250, and the remaining $200 should be easily raised.

W. T. Ziegler, T. C. Billheimer, J. A. Clutz, committee.

DOESN'T KNOW OF CHILD'S DEATH

Paul W. D. Fridinger, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Fridinger, near Brunsdown, died Tuesday, January 30, at 1:30 p. m., after only a day's illness with membranous croup.

The remains were interred in the cemetery at Hoettter's meeting house Union township Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

A sad feature in the death of this child is that the mother, who is now receiving treatment in the Baltimore City Hospital, has not been informed of her child's death.

TOWN HALL FOR ABBOTTSTOWN

Abbottstown citizens are considering the project of erecting a town hall. It is in charge of a stock company and there is said to be little trouble to raise the necessary funds. The building is to be of brick, one story high, 60 by 32 feet or possibly 40 feet wide, fitted with a stage and suitable furniture.

PRIZE WINNING CHICKENS

J. Hoke Slaybaugh, of Biglerville, spent one day at the recent poultry show held at Chambersburg. He exhibited two hens and one cock of Golden Wyandottes, and won $3.00 on one hen and one cock, and another special prize. There were about 1100 chickens on exhibit.

PARTY who left bundle of dry goods at Kirsin's store can recover same by calling at the store and paying for this advertisement.

FOR RENT: April 1st, Dr. Tudor's office. Can be converted into a flat. Three rooms and a bath. Heated. Access to balcony. Amos Eckert.

DR. HILDEBRAND HURT IN RUNAWAY

Horse of Biglerville Physician Gets beyond Control and Doctor is Thrown against Side of House Sustaining Broken Ribs.

Dr. J. H. Hildebrand, of Biglerville, was severely injured about eight o'clock this morning when his horse got beyond control and he was thrown from a sleigh against the side of a house, sustaining four fractured ribs and numerous bruises. Though suffering from his injuries it is believed that they are not serious and that the well known physician will recover in a reasonable time from his experience.

Dr. Hildebrand had been summoned early in the morning to answer a call in the country and he was returning from this work when the horse got beyond control. He was within the borough limits when he found that he could not stop the animal and was powerless to keep it from turning the sharp corner at the alley at the Hildebrand home. As the horse swerved around the corner the physician was thrown out against the wall of the house.

Rural Mail Carrier Sandoe and S. H. Wampler, who lives across the street, hurried to his side and carried him into the house. Doctor L. E. Merriam and Doctor William E. Wolfe, of Arendtsville, were at once summoned and they reduced the fractures. It is not thought that any internal injuries were sustained though it will require several days to ascertain this positively.

The horse ran for some distance before being caught. The sleigh was considerably damaged.

NO PAY FROM MEMBERS

Rev. G. M. Diffenderfer, of Carlisle, well known here, who has been widely quoted as advocating fees for ministers who officiate at funerals has given to the press the following from his address on the subject which puts a different light on his attitude:

"Don't look for compensation from members of the church. Such as are contributors to the work of the church of Christ ought not to pay for the services of a clergyman. But those who have never been contributors to any church, and have given nothing to forward religious influence in the community, ought not to expect a man to give his time, energy and strength without being compensated for his services. All personal expenses thus incurred ought at least to be paid by the proper persons. You funeral directors can aid very materially in this matter by suggesting it to members of the family."

PROTECTS HORSES FROM ICY STREETS

Local Agent for Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will See that Horses are Properly "Roughed."

Felix Foller, local agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, states that the society has issued a card warning drivers to have their horses shod, failure to observe the request rendering them liable to arrest.

"You are hereby warned that horses found working on the streets while same are in a slippery condition, shod with smooth shoes and straining every nerve and muscle to hold their footing, will be ordered from labor immediately, and failure to obey the request of the agent will be followed by an arrest."

"The Pennsylvania Society and the Women's Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will strictly enforce this rule as the person or corporation who sends a horse on an ice covered thoroughfare without proper shoes to protect it from falling and possible injury, is guilty of 'ill-treating and otherwise abusing' an animal and will be dealt with according to law."

Charles Shultz furnished the music.

MRS. SUE P. SCHAFF

Mrs. Sue P. Schaff died Tuesday evening at the home of her son, Jacob G. Schaff, Chambersburg.

Susan Peters Schaff was born near Bendersville, July 27, 1838. In 1850 she was married to the late Rev J. G. Schaff, who was the founder of the "People's Register." Her husband's death occurred in 1881, leaving her a widow with seven children.

She is survived by two sons, Bruce H. Schaff, Riverton, N. J.; and Jacob G. Schaff, of Chambersburg, two daughters, Mrs. H. M. Miley and Abigail A. Schaff, also by two brothers and one sister.

Funeral from the home of Jacob G. Schaff, Chambersburg, Friday afternoon at 2.30.

TUBERCULOSIS CATTLE

The State Live Stock Sanitary Board acting with the government authorities, is waging a war against the cattle dealers who are bringing tuberculosis steers for food purposes into the state.

A few cases of persistence in defying the laws have been reported from counties where interstate traffic is carried on, but Uncle Sam's agents will work with the Pennsylvania officials. It is believed that such unscrupulous traffic will soon be stamped out.

The points of shipment of diseased cattle are being watched very closely and before long some arrests are expected to be made by the Federal and State agents.

RUBERT—SHULTZ

Frederick Rubert, of Dover township, York County, and Miss Alice Shultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shultz, near East Berlin, were married at the Reformed church parsonage, East Berlin, Sunday evening.

KIMMEL—KINKAID

Old St. Anne's Protestant Episcopal Church, Annapolis, was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, when Miss Dorothy Kinkaid, daughter of Capt. Thomas W. Kinkaid, U. S. N., and Mrs. Kinkaid, of Annapolis, became the wife of Lieut. Husband E. Kimmel. The bride is well known in Gettysburg.

The bride's gown was of white satin, and she carried lilies of the valley and orchids. She was given in marriage by her father. The maid of honor was Miss Mary Hope, of Portsmouth, Va., who wore pale green broadcloth and carried American beauty roses.

There were six bridesmaids. All were attired in white broadcloth and carried violets and ferns. The best man was Lieut. Clarence A. Richards, a classmate of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents.

BANQUETED AT LITTLESTOWN

Hanover Elks, to the number of about 40, journeyed to Littlestown Tuesday evening and participated in a chicken and waffle supper at Hotel Ocker.

John A. Hornberger, burgess of Littlestown, was the guest of honor and in addition to "His Honor, the Mayor," the following from Littlestown attended: Postmaster L. M. Alteman, Charles Blocher, John Eline and Harry Kohler.

Frank Rodgers, past exalted ruler of the Hanover lodge, acted as toastmaster and responses were made by Burgess Hornberger and Postmaster Alteman, of Littlestown; William H. Long, C. Edgar Phreaner, Guy W. Bange, Esq., and several other antlered brothers.

PARTY

A delightful surprise party followed by a dance was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Biddle on Carlisle street. The evening was spent in playing games and several song selections were rendered by the Stevens Hall quartette, Mr. J. Carroll Rupp of Hanover, being the pianist. About 50 young people were present and after a sumptuous feast all returned home after enjoying a thoroughly pleasant evening.

INSTALLATION AT LITTLESTOWN

District Deputy Roessner, of Hagerstown, assisted by Horace D. Becker, alternate deputy, a member of Hanover Conclave No. 466, on Tuesday evening installed the officers of Adams Conclave No. 325 Independent Order of Heptasophs, of Littlestown. At the conclusion of the installation work, a banquet was served.

PRINCE ADALBERT.

Kaiser Wilhelm's Third Son.
Who Will Soon Visit America.

GERMANY WILL SEND SQUADRON HERE

Prince Adalbert is Coming With Warships.

Berlin, Feb. 1.—A German squadron will almost certainly be sent to American waters this year, to return the visit to Kiel of the second division of the United States North Atlantic squadron under Rear Admiral Badger in June last.

It is also expected that Prince Adalbert, the Emperor's third son, who this year returns to the battleship fleet, will accompany the squadron to America.

A report that he is to be assigned to the cruiser Bremen on the American station is, however, incorrect.

The size of the squadron to be sent has not yet been settled. It will probably be composed of big cruisers.

NEVER SAW A STEAMBOAT

Sixty-Year-Old Man in Delaware Never Rode on Railroad.

Bridgeville, Del., Feb. 1.—Determined that John S. Brown, who lives near here, shall get a ride on a railroad after sixty years of life, business men of the town are arranging a trip for him to Philadelphia, where they will combine in showing him the sights of a big city.

Brown lives about five miles from Bridgeville and is sixty years old. He well remembers the building of the first railroad in lower Delaware, but although he has since become a well-to-do farmer and often comes to town, he has never yet taken a ride on a train and has never in his life visited any town larger than Bridgeville. He has never seen a steamboat and the only knowledge of a big city he has secured has been through reading the papers.

TAP UNDERGROUND RIVER

Workmen Unearth Stream 6550 Feet Deep in Mine.

Georgetown, Colo., Feb. 1.—Workmen drilling 6550 feet from the portal in the Marsha Russell mine tunnel here unearthed what they believe to be an underground river.

After the firing of several dynamite blasts in the tunnel workmen started to clear away rock and earth loosened by the shots.

There was a rush of water that filled the tunnel to a depth of four feet, sweeping ore cars before it and turning several of them completely over.

All of the workmen escaped. It is said this is the first occurrence of its kind ever recorded in Colorado.

Thieves Steal Tombstone.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 1.—Thieves got away with a tombstone weighing nearly a ton, just after it was ready for installation over a grave in a local cemetery. The police have no clue.

LIKES BEING A MILLIONAIRE

Uncle Left Lad Fortune of $25,000 a Year.

PLANS METEORIC CAREER

Buy a $5000 Automobile to Go Joy Riding and Promises to Turn Loose a Few Jolts on the Great White Way in New York.

Atlantic Highlands, N. J., Feb. 1.—Young Simon Paddock, of this town, is back from Syracuse and his uncle Simon had left him to spend. He comes back a happily surprised lad. He reports his uncle left him an annual income of $25,000.

The young man's plans to rival the meteoric career on Broadway of the famed Mr. McDevitt, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., are already under way. He got a few hundred dollars advance on his fortune in Syracuse from his uncle's executors.

He came home paying for newspapers with dollar bills and giving tips on his meals equal to the full amounts of the checks presented to him. The boy does not drink and the utmost devilishness that suggested itself to him was the purchase of two boxes of 25-cent cigars.

If Paddock's information is correct, his uncle left him an estate amounting to $3,000,000. The income of a million of it is left to young Simon's father, who is incurably ill at the Memorial hospital at Long Branch.

The first thing the boy did after he had got through shaking hands and answering questions around town was to go to W. N. Shedecker, an automobile agent, and order a $5000 car. Then he went to Harry Richmond, for whom he once worked, and hired Richmond as chauffeur at $50 a week.

"It may seem like high wages, but Harry was good to me when he was boss, and I want to get back at him," said the new-made plutocrat.

Next Paddock sat down and wrote an order to a firm which makes a specialty of printing pictures of wonderfully dressed youths in three colors on the back pages of magazine.

He told them he wanted "a full dress evening dress suit, including tuxedo, and a crush opera hat with a spring in it, with a manure set and morocco cigar case and a silver backed toilet set."

There is one item in the will which annoys the youth greatly. It is a provision that he must go to school and reach a certain standard in education.

"What's the use?" asks Paddock. "Now that I've got money I don't need an education. It isn't as though I was going to have to work for a living. I know enough now to go over to New York and turn loose a few jolts on the old town that will let them know that Wilkes-Barre fellow was a piker. Wait until the estate is settled. New York will know it without any advance advertising. I intend to be the real noise from Thirty-fourth street to Fifty-ninth street. Believe me!"

"Education? I ain't got no time to waste that way. My hunch is to set up a good automobile garage and be an automobile agent. Then there'd be nothing but joy riding all the time, with twenty cars to pick from."

START FIGHT ON STEEL BILL

Democrats Demand Report by Senate Committee Within 20 Days.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The fight over the question of instructing the senate finance committee to report the Democratic steel tariff bill within twenty days, was begun when the senate convened. Senator Reed, of Missouri, a Democrat, demanded such instruction. Senator Penrose, chairman of the committee, protested that twenty days was insufficient time for tariff consideration, particularly for hearing Pacific coast interests.

Found 21 Deer in Field.

East Hampton, Conn., Feb. 1.—Michael Daley found in a field back of his house a herd of twenty-one deer. They ranged from fawns to big bucks, and the state will have to pay the bill for their fun. So hungry were the deer during the cold snap that some ate the white oak bark off the bungalows at John Johnson's, walking on the veranda to reach the bark-covered slabs.

Introduces Government Ownership Bill

Washington, Feb. 1.—A bill for government ownership of railroad, telephone, telegraph and express properties engaged in interstate commerce was introduced by Representative Berger, Socialist, of Wisconsin.

TAFT STARTS FOR HOME

President is Pleased With Political Outlook in Ohio.

Akron, O., Feb. 1.—President Taft left here for Washington after a three-day trip to his home state, in a contented frame of mind as to the political outlook in Ohio.

During the last few days Mr. Taft has met many Ohio political leaders in Cleveland, Columbus and this city, and they pledged him their hearty support in the coming presidential campaign. The president is confident that his home state will give a large Republican majority next fall in spite of the insurgent movement in the northern part of the state.

Mr. Taft's political advisers believe that basic conditions in Ohio are satisfactory from a Republican and administration point of view. Mr. Taft's political friends think that his present trip and his clear and optimistic speeches at Cleveland and Columbus have had a good effect and will do a great deal toward clearing up the opposition to the president in his home state.

Mr. Taft closed his present trip with a speech before the members of the Akron Chamber of Commerce, in which he defended the record of the Republican party on the tariff question and contended that the tariff schedules should be revised only upon the basis of data obtained by a non-partisan tariff board after a complete and searching inquiry into the industry affected.

CHINESE EMPEROR SOON TO ABDICATE

Royal Family Accepts Conditions of Rebels.

Peking, China, Feb. 1.—The imperial foreign board announced that the emperor dowager had informed the members of the cabinet at a meeting in the palace that the throne had decided on a solution of the situation which would insure peace.

She instructed the ministers to arrange accordingly. It is understood from the foregoing dispatch that the imperial family has accepted the conditions laid down by the republicans and that the abdication of the emperor will be announced immediately.

At a conference between the emperor dowager, Prince Chun, the former regent, and Prince Ching, the former premier, it is believed that it was decided that the imperial family and princes would abdicate if they were allowed to retain their empty titles.

The dowager empress and the emperor may reside in Peking or elsewhere at their pleasure, and receive annual pensions aggregating 3,000,000 taels (approximately $2,000,000), and that the transference of power would be carried out with as little loss of dignity to the throne as possible.

Hear Edict Has Been Signed.

London, Feb. 1.—The edict of abdication of the Chinese throne has been signed, according to a message from Tien Tsin. The court will not quit Peking for a month, as the Manchurian troops of the garrison threaten to kill the royal family and the princes if they attempt to leave the capital.

SON KILLS FATHER

Tragedy Follows Attempted Whipping on Iowa Farm.

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 1.—When George Loposse, a wealthy farmer living near Edinburg, in Christian county, attempted to whip his eighteen-year-old son, Roy, he was shot and instantly killed by the boy. Loposse leaves a widow and four other children.

Roy Loposse declared later that he shot his father in self-defense. He said his parent tried to drive the other members of the family out of the house and, when resistance was offered, attempted to stab him. The son offered to surrender to the authorities, but was not arrested.

Crown Prince Off to Alps.

Berlin, Feb. 1.—Crown Prince Frederick William left for Switzerland to recuperate from his recent illness. He was accompanied by Crown Princess Cecilie. They are to stay for several weeks at Celerina, in the Upper Engadine, near St. Moritz.

Particularly the Ladies.

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is particularly adapted to ladies and children, and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used. It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

For sale by all leading druggists. Price 50 cents per bottle.

CONFER PALLIUM UPON ARCHBISHOP

High Churchmen Attend Holy Rites in Philadelphia.

A SCENE OF SPLENDOR

Cardinal Gibbons Confers Sacred Insignia of Authority Upon Archbishop Prendergast.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—In the presence of a notable congregation of priests and laity, including two of the four American members of the college of cardinals, Cardinal Gibbons and Cardinal Farley, the sacred pallium was conferred upon Right Rev. Edmond F. Prendergast, D. D., archbishop of Philadelphia.

The pallium, the insignia of the archbishop's authority in the church, had been brought from Pope Pius X.
by the Right Rev. Monsignor O'Hern, vice rector of the American College at Rome. He turned it over to Cardinal
Gibbons, who, assisted by Cardinal
Farley, formally invested Archbishop Prendergast with the white woolen band.

The rite of investiture, though simple in itself, was surrounded by elaborate ceremonies. There was a high pontifical mass celebrated by the bishop of Erie, and Cardinal Gibbons delivered a solemn address to Archbishop Prendergast. Bishop Canevin, of Pittsburg, preached the sermon, and there were present in the sanctuary eighteen bishops, many monsignori, several cited abbots and six hundred priests from dioceses all over the United States, from the Philippines and even far away Africa.

No less distinguished were the members of the laity present at the ceremony. Acting as guards of honor to the cardinals were a score of the leading Catholic men of Philadelphia.
In the congregation, which filled the stately cathedral to the doors, were many men and women prominent in Philadelphia.

The bodyguards selected to attend
Cardinals Gibbons and Farley comprised the following prominent laymen:
Walter George Smith, Martin Maloney,
Samuel Castner, Edward J. Durnell,
James J. Ryan and P. F. Kernan, Knights of St. Gregory by appointment of the pope.

Several thousand persons were unable to gain admission to the cathedral. They braved the ice and snow in Logan square and stood in the raw air to see the arrival of the various dignitaries. They removed their hats and stood silent when Cardinal Gibbons and Cardinal Farley entered the cathedral. It had been planned to have a procession of the clergy preceding the ceremonies, but the condition of the streets prohibited this being carried out.

Following the ceremonies at the cathedral there was a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford exclusively for the cardinals, archbishops, bishops and priests. None of the laity was admitted. Among those who spoke informally were Cardinals Gibbons and Farley, Archbishop Prendergast, Very Rev. Dr. Henry T. Drumgoole, rector of St. Charles Borromeo's seminary, Overbrook, and Rev. James F. Trainor, vicar general of St. Philip's church.

All in all, the event was one of the most notable in the history of the archdiocese. The pallium had been conferred in Philadelphia but twice before. The last time was twenty-seven years ago, when Archbishop Ryan Archbishop Prendergast's predecessor, received it, also from the hands of Cardinal Gibbons, then, as now, the archbishop of Baltimore.

MACFARLAND IS GUILTY

Newark Man Convicted of Murder in First Degree.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 1.—The jury in the case of Allison MacFarland brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree after a deliberation of more than twelve hours.

Allison M. MacFarland was found guilty of causing the death of his wife Evelyn, who drank cyanide of potassium on the night of Oct. 17. Mac-Farland admitted that he had brought the poison to the house and had placed it in a bromide bottle.

The jury found that he did so with intent to cause her death. The prosecution claimed that MacFarland's infatuation for a Philadelphia woman named in the case as Florence Bromley, furnished the motive.

Miners' Cage Falls; Eight Hurt.

Danville, Ill., Feb. 1.—Eight men were injured, four seriously, by the falling of a mine cage crowded with men going to work in the Electric coal mine. The cage dropped about 200 feet. The mine owners say the engineer lost control of the machinery causing the crowded cage to drop to the bottom of the shaft, and the other coming up empty, to be thrown from the mouth of the mine.

Her Suitor Murdered.

Camden, N. J., Feb. 1.—Nunzio Imparro, of Philadelphia, was shot and killed here in a street quarrel, and the police are searching for Stephen Corosso, alleged to have fired the shot.
His sister-in-law, Miss Christina Andia, is held as a material witness. Imparro had been attentive to her.

TRUST DENIES BREAKING LAW

Steel Corporation Files Answer in Dissolution Suit.

SAYS IT HELPS TRADE

Carnegie, Rockefeller and Others Also Make General Denial of Violating Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 1.—Absolute denial of alleged violations of the anti-trust law is made by the United States Steel corporation, its subsidiaries and directors, in their answers, which were filed in the United States district court here, to the government's dissolution suit. Five separate answers were filed by thirty-three defendants.

The effect of its organization, the corporation declares, has been to cheapen production, effect economies and increase foreign trade from $8,000,000 to $60,000,000 annually within ten years. So long has the government acquiesced in its existence, the answer says, that it is now too late, as a matter of equity, to insist that its organization was illegal.

Nothing was withheld from President Roosevelt by Messrs. Gary and Frick on Nov. 4, 1907, the answer says, when they sought his consent to the corporation's proposed purchase of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company; nor were the so-called Gary dinners productive of agreements to regulate prices.

Four of the answers made public are those of Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, Sr., John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and Edmund C. Converse. Messrs. Rockefeller deny that they had an active part in the formation or management of the corporation, the elder Rockefeller declaring that he has had no immediate relation to the iron or steel business since 1901.

Mr. Carnegie says he had no part in the plans for organizing the corporation and no voice, direct or advisory, in its management. He admitted selling the Carnegie Steel company to the United States Steel corporation, but denies that the acquisition by the Carnegie company of its subsidiaries was in restraint of trade.

The answer of Edmund C. Converse, a director of the United States Steel corporation, is similar to the corporation's answer.

Each of the defendants prays that the suit be dismissed.

The answers filed, with those filed Monday by the Minnesota group of land and mining companies and five individuals named as trustees, will complete the answers from all fifty-six defendants named in the suit.

The next step will be the filing of replications by the government, which must be done within thirty days unless an extension of time is granted. After that a commissioner will be appointed to take testimony.

GOES INSANE ON STREET

Judge Henry A. Dewey Parades Boston in Uniform.

Boston, Mass., Feb.—Former Judge Henry S. Dewey, once a candidate for governor and conspicuous in public life for years, was arrested on the charge of being insane.

He resisted arrest, but was bundled into a taxicab which hustled him to an insane institution. He was dressed, when arrested, in full uniform of a brigadier general with side arms, boots and shoes.

CONDEMNED FOOD EXPLODES

Tomato Paste Blows Up When Thrown Into a Furnace.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 1.—A quantity of condemned tomato paste found in the warehouse of the Italian-French Produce company here, was thrown into the furnace of the firm by United States Marshal Dick.

Several terrific explosions followed, scattering those about the furnace. The balance of the tomato paste, ordered destroyed by the court, was then thrown onto a garbage dump.

It Must Be True

Gettysburg Readers Must Come to that Conclusion.

It is not the telling of a single case in Gettysburg, but scores of citizens testify. Endorsement by people you know bears the stamp of truth. The following is one of the public statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills:

John J. Tawney, 234 Baltimore street, Gettysburg, Pa., says "I hold Doan's Kidney Pills in high esteem and I always have a box in the house to use in case of need. I suffered from kidney complaint. My back ached constantly and often in the morning I was so stiff and lame that I could hardly get out of bed. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and caused me no end of annoyance. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I did so, getting them from the People's Drug Store and I was surprised by their promptness in relieving me. My health improved greatly and I now have no cause for complaint. Two years ago a member of my family publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills in my behalf and at this time I can confirm that statement."
